OPEN ENDED QUESTIONS/COMMENTS

1. Please comment on specific characteristics of the course that were most beneficial to you.

This was one of the hardest and the most learning experiences I've had in a while. First time stats/prob students really need to make sure they understand the material. Learned a lot about probabilities and prob. processes.

2. Please comment on specific aspects of the course that need improvement.

Assigning more practice problems would be great I guess. Hopefully the exams can be a little predictable because most of it was nothing like the homeworks or anything.

3. If necessary clarify any of your previous responses or make additional comments.

Everything was great except for being a first time prob.

1. Please comment on specific characteristics of the course that were most beneficial to you.

Professor Devorje is very enthusiastic about teaching this course, learned a lot, and I will recommend her to other students. Her explanations were also usually clear and helpful.

2. Please comment on specific aspects of the course that need improvement.

The homework questions were sometimes a bit impossible which consumed a lot of time for no gain in knowledge such as the sum of RV back in chap 2 and the decision model. These hw questions were also not graded well.

Poor homework questions and poor homework grading.

3. If necessary clarify any of your previous responses or make additional comments.

Professor Devorje should teach more courses and Prof James Lin should be fired or at least removed from teaching.

The professor did a really good job adapting her teaching to meet the needs of the class. She slowed down and did more examples that really helped understand what was going on.

2. Please comment on specific aspects of the course that need improvement.

The class itself was very hard. Some of the concepts are difficult to understand. The homework I think should have more partial credit given out, same with exams. We have to show our work so partial credit I think is something that should be given out.
